Burdette Is the Greatest Giant Killer to Date

Associated Press Sports Writer
If San Francisco loses the Na tional League pennant, they con blame it on Lew Burdette, the greatest giant killer of them all. Burdette did it again Wednesday, beating the Giants with a five-hitter 2-0 that slashed their lead to one game. It was his fifth victory over San Francisco this

He may have something spee-tacular to submit. But whether his address is a surprise or not the consensus here is that his performance on the first leg of his historic visit to the United States already has added up to signifi-cant propagands for Moscow. He nimself has conceded that thus far he has offered no new proposals. He has suggested that the main anlagonists in the cold war, if they want to avoid turning earth into "asnes and graves," must find ways of composing their differences on the future use of nuclear power and rocket science,

At the same time he has promised he will present something in the way of disarmament proposals at the United Nations. Washington, Khrushchev asked for more "give" on both sides to avoid the grim prospect of a new world war. There was nothing new in this statement. Americans to ponder in the way Rev. J. C.
